Merry Christmas TIARA TRAVELS

The Miss Five Hills Scholarship Program Official Newsletter

Thank you for your support of the Miss Five Hills Scholarship Program! Here is a snapshot over the last month of how your investment is paying off!

7th Annual Krist Kindl Charity Pageant

Young Miss Five Hills Emily Kimball hosted the seventh annual Krist Kindl Charity Pageant, drawing nearly 70 contestants. This year's pageant raised nearly $4,000 for the Alzheimer's Association to help fund a cure for Alzheimer's Disease and dementia. Since its inception in 2015, the Krist Kindl Charity Pageant has raised more than $18,400 for charitable causes.

First Place Win

The Copperas Cove Five Hills royalty captured FIRST PLACE in the Cove Christmas Parade! The parade theme was "Favorite Christmas Movie." We chose the 1942 classic, White Christmas! Thank you to the Copperas Cove Chamber of Commerce for hosting the parade each year! Thank you to Benny Boyd Copperas Cove for providing our towing vehicle for the parade and to VFW Post 8577 for sponsoring the float. It is always a humbling opportunity to represent our the City of Copperas Cove in our hometown parade.

Second Place Wins

The Copperas Cove Five Hills royalty captured SECOND PLACE in the 75th Annual Temple Christmas Parade and the cash prize of $500! This parade is very competitive. This year's parade theme was The Magical Tradition of Christmas. Spectators were able to enjoy the glow of the street lamps as they stepped back in time to a true traditional Christmas with a touch of magic! The Copperas Cove Five Hills queens were ready to enjoy the Christmas festivities in their velvet capes and fur muffs with caroling of Bing Crosby's 1942 hit, White Christmas, while the Copperas Cove kings shared the magic of the holiday season in their top hats of yesteryear.

GINGERBREAD VILLAGE! Our Copperas Cove Five Hills royalty represent the City of Copperas Cove in Coryell County's county seat of Gatesville, in the local parade! The theme was Gingerbread House and our titleholders created their own structures to build an entire gingerbread village!

The Copperas Cove Five Hills Royalty rolled in their first holiday parade of the season in Salado! The titleholders represented the City of Copperas Cove in six parades across Central Texas this holiday season!

The theme for the 58th Annual Killeen Christmas Parade was "On Ice." The Copperas Cove Five Hills royalty participated in the parade with Disney Christmas on Ice. The titleholders were dressed as Disney characters. The entry was definitely a crowd favorite as spectators yelled out greetings to their favorite princess and Disney friends! The City of Killeen will announce the winners later this week!

BINGO

B-I-N-G-O! Copperas Cove Five Hills Ambassador Dawn Hale presented the inaugural German Bingo activity at this year's Krist Kindl Markt! Silvia Rhodes was our German bingo caller while Dawn called the numbers in English! We had several German speakers playing bingo with us too! All money raised went to the cause of purchasing fans for Copperas Cove's senior citizens to use this summer.

Giving Tuesday

The Copperas Cove Five Hills royalty host events, conduct fundraisers, collection drives, and more to support and advocate for their chosen charities during their yearlong reigns. For the second consecutive year, the titleholders took advantage of Facebook's Giving Tuesday to raise additional funds and awareness for a variety of causes.

Honoring our nation's heroes in the Killeen Veterans Day Parade! Thank you to all of our military personnel and their families for your service to our nation!

THANK YOU to Benny Boyd of Copperas Cove for providing our towing vehicle for all of our parades this year and to VFW Post #8577 for sponsoring our float this year!

Little Miss Five Hills Braelyn Liles was honored by Foster Love Bell County for her work to support children in foster care. Braelyn has collected more than 1,500 items that children need when removed from their homes due to abuse and/or neglect! For Christmas, Braelyn is collecting new pajamas for children in foster care! If you would like to brighten the holidays of a foster child with new P.J.'s, email fivehillspageant@gmail.com.
